EXPERIENCE

2022 - 2024 FrontEnd Developer

Alongside theoretical knowledge, I completed twelve diverse projects encompassing these languages, showcasing my ability to create responsive layouts, interactive features, and dynamic content.

Notably, I focused on optimizing websites for search engines and implemented automated testing methodologies to ensure the functionality and reliability of web applications.

Among my proudest achievements is the creation of a dynamic portfolio website, which not only highlights my projects but also demonstrates my expertise in frontend development.

These experiences not only honed my technical skills but also equipped me with the capability to effectively address real-world challenges in web development.

2011 - 2022 Head of Finance and HR at Capel Paris

I began my journey in the fashion industry, starting as a General Accountant.

Through dedication and expertise, I advanced to the role of Financial Controller, where I played a pivotal role in financial management.

Ultimately, I reached the position of Head of Finance and HR, overseeing both financial operations and human resources functions.

My journey reflects a comprehensive understanding of the industry and a successful evolution from accounting to a leadership role in finance and HR.

2010 - 2011 General Accountant at Crédit Agricole Nord de France

I served as a key member in a dynamic accounting team, overseeing financial and HR operations for 18 estate agencies.

I played a crucial role in maintaining the financial health of the agencies, implementing efficient HR processes, and contributing to the overall success of the organization.

2006 - 2010 Junior Accountant at Mutualité Française 82

I began my career in the accounting and HR departments of a company specializing in the creation of health centers.

In this role, I contributed to the establishment and maintenance of efficient processes within the company, laying the foundation for my subsequent roles in financial and HR management.
